

Dear Advanced Choir Parent/Guardians,

Here is the information about our upcoming UIL Concert and Sight-reading Competition. UIL Concert and Sight-reading Competition: Friday, April 7.

This is a REQUIRED competition for all Advanced Choir students. The students have been working on three pieces which they will perform as a choir in front of three judges. The students have also been working on their sight-reading skills, which they will put to the test in the sight-reading room in front of a panel of three different judges. The students will be ranked on a scale of 1-5, 1 being the best.

Please make sure students bring their UIL Dress and shoes to school! Students will meet in my room after school, and we will have an after school snack. We will depart Kealing at 4:15 PM. The competition is as follows:

Warm-up	5:20
Concert	5:40
Sight-reading	6:00
Photo	6:20
Back at Kealing	7:00

Austin ISD PAC is located at 1500 Barbara Jordan Blvd. You are welcome to observe the Concert portion of the competition from 5:40-6:00.

Following the group photo, we will take the bus back to Kealing. We will have an in class celebration next week.

UIL Concert and Sight-reading is a wonderful way to challenge the entire choir to master all of their skills and work together as a group. Each member must do her personal best in order to achieve the best possible rating.

Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns! Thanks for your ongoing support of the Kealing Choral Program. We could not do any of this without you!

Sincerely,

Ms. Parks
